MRS. LYDIA H. BARNEY CELEBRATES 94th BIRTHDAY

On Monday, January 8th, 1923, at the residence of herself and her grand-daughter, Mrs. Clara Oswald, 205 Emerson street, Palo Alto, Mrs. Lydia H. Barney celebrated the 94th anniversary of her birthday. Surrounded by her relatives, and more than thirty friends, she enjoyed to the full the pleasures of the day.

Mrs. Barney arrived in California with her husband, the late Benjamin A. Barney, in 1853, and came to San Mateo county some forty-five years ago. Until two years ago she resided at the old family home in Fair Oaks (now called Atherton,) and is well-known in that neighborhood, and also in Redwood City.

A lady at all times of remarkable brightness of intellect, and the soul of hospitilaty, she still retains and manifests all of these remarkable traits; her memory and recollection of events are still wonderfully good, and on Monday last she showed unusual memory in recounting to her guests many occurrences of long-gone days, and many events long past away.

To a wonderful degree Mrs. Barney appreciates the events of present every-day life, keeps apace with current events, and with her quaint humor keeps all about her amused with her deductions and conclusions.

Mrs. Barney was born in Rhode Island, and comes of a very long-lived family. Her younger sister, Mrs. Folger (now aged eighty-seven years) who also resides in Palo Alto, was present on Monday to greet Mrs. Barney, and there are other sisters and brothers of this remarkable family still living.

Miss Gertrude Allender (a dear friend of Mrs. Barney) prepared in honor of Monday's reception a birthday cake of huge proportion, and adorned the same with ninety-four lighted candles; as each of the guests departed Mrs. Barney extinguished a candle, thereby conforming to an old-time custom still green in her memory.

The grand-daughters of Mrs. Barney (Mrs. Oswald and Miss Cecelia Barney) and the two-year old daughter of Mrs. Oswald are constantly with Mrs. Barney, and contribute in every way to her comfort.

The old lady suffered no ill effects from the anniversary day, and personally bade farwell to her many guests, and accompanied each farewell with a request that her friends call again next year to see her.

WOODSIDE CHIRPS

Mrs. Daniel C. Jackling, with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Allen and Mrs. Allen's children, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Jackling home. Many improvements have been made in the old Talbot house, in preparation for the Jackling's use in the summer and the Talbot barn has been torn down and a new one built on the former Meyerstein place which also belongs to Jackling.

Mr. O. E. Blackington has been clearing the overhanging trees from about the superintendent's house on the Folger place. One tree ran wild and took a chimney and part of the roof along with it.

Mrs. J. L. Ross, Jr., has gone to the city for a couple of months, but Joe is so busy with his new tractor in the day time and with his new radio at night that he will not miss her as much as he would have done earlier in the season.

Our latest recruit in the radio line is Stanford MacDonald. He has installed an instrumest that he received as a Christmas gift and now his enthusiasm for listening in for Salt Lake or Los Angeles makes it harder than ever for him to get to bed on time.

on the Woodside road. Many chuck holes and broken places in the pavement had developed that made the passage of the grade on a "skiddy" day or on a dark night an unpleasant, if not dangerous, experience.

Fred Mighall has had so many applications for his new but uncompleted house on the Highway that he has determined to hurry it along till it is ready for occupancy.

Albert Meyer, who has been in the employ of George Stafford of Redwood City, is preparing to take a course in pharmacy at the Affiliated Colleges in San Francisco.

Henry Koop has returned to his home here after two weeks' sojourn at St. Francis hospital, improved, but not yet in that condition of health that his friends would like to see for him.

The farmers of this neighborhood are showing feverish anxiety to get their fields seeded before another rain comes to postpone their operations.

THREE JUDGES HOLD COURT HERE

Last Thursday a rather unusual circumstance occurea in the court house here, that of having three sperior judges holding court on the same day. Owing to the rush of legal matters in the court house it became necessary for Judge Buck of San Mateo county to call to his assistance Judge Knight of Santa Cruz county and Judge Hudner of San Benito county.

In the court room of the superior court with Judge Knight on the bench the will contest case of the estate of Elizabeth Mary Gardiner was tried, while in the supervisors room, Judge Hudner heard a contiuation of the Borel case. Judge Buck called the probate calandar. For the past decade Henry Steinberger, the genial manager of the tannery has driven home and back to work day after day, rain or shine, behind his faithful old bay horse, Billie. Billy and Henry used to talk to each other as they drove along. They were inseparable companions. On January 1st, Billy went on the retired list and can eat his head off in the company stable if he wants to. Now Mr. Steinberger drives to work and back again in his new roadster. He can talk to the machine all he wants to, but it will never turn its head and whinny at him.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND MANUFACTURING FAIR

Peninsula Pagaent of Progress Promises to be Great Attraction and Would Prove Invaluable Advertising Asset to the Community

Last Thursday night the matter of holding a county fair was discussed at a meeting of the Redwood City Commercial Club and so much interest was shown in the matter that Secretary Smith immediately began gathering information to the question. Secretary Smith had already been looking into the subject of fairs and had been corresponding with the secretary of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce in regard to the fair just held there and which proved so successful.

A representative of a well-known fair company was present and outlined the general proceedure of a fair. This company provides a large tent, 90 by 500 feet, and secures the exhibitors and makes all the necessary arrangements.

The fair would serve to advertise the many and various products of the county and would give our neighbors a chance to see what San Mateo county can produce. The various manufacturers of the county would also be represented and the advertising value of such a fair would be invaluable.

On Tuesday the Commercial Club and the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce will meet together to discuss the project and probably will go ahead with the plans of the fair. As a name for the fair, "Peninsula Pagaent of Progress," was proposed and was considered as very appropriate.

A VISITOR WITH MRS. HAW

The San Jose police department, Monday picked up an eleven-year-old boy who had started to skate around the world. Because he had taken French leave from home, the youth, whose name is Billy Calhoun, and whose home is in Daly City, was turned over to Mrs. Haw of the local Detention Home. The youngster is an exceptionally bright boy for his age. He didn't like conditions at home, although he says his stepfather was kind to him. He thought that with the aid of his trusty skates he could see the country and acquire an education. He probably picked up a smattering of things that would not have been good for him. He is in good hands, however, so long as Mrs. Haw has charge of him, which will be until the Juvenile Court settles his case.

The season for killing ducks, jack snipe, geese, quail, rabbits and mud snipe, geese, quail, rabbits and mud hens will close tomorrow. Hunters will be out in force today and tomorrow to secure a final shoot for the season. Game is rapidly decreasing in this county and soon it will be extinct. The game commission annually receives hundreds of thousands of dollars from the sale of licenses. What they do with it God only knows. The forests of this county should be stocked with quail and the streams with trout so that the peninsula would be one of the big game and splendid streams for fish is good protection for all kinds of game an dsplendid streams for fish It is to be hoped that the new game commission to be appointed by Governor Richardson will give due consideration to all such matters which are of vital interest to sportmen of the state.

THE SHIP OF STATE

On Tuesday Friend William Richardson became governor of California. Mr. Richardson was elected by one of the largest majorities ever received by a governor in California. Upon organizing the legislature it was found that he had sufficient strength in the lower house to name the presiding officer of that body. This shows that he will be able to put his policies into operation. Governor Richardson in his opening address to the legislature told what he hoped to accomplish during his term. As he said so often during the campaign, economy would be the thing to be striven for. We hope that he will be able to maintain a business like form of government and retrench without crippling any branch of the state administration. He also asked that few changes be made in the laws. We hope that only remedial legislation will be enacted as it is hard for the people to intelligently pass on so many things as they were required to understand at the last election.

A BIT OF PUBLICITY

There are very few towns that ever let the world know as much about them as the world should know. Not long ago we heard a man give a selling talk. He talked about selling goods, selling reputations and selling towns. To begin with he said that any merchant who wanted to sell goods, had to sell his reputation and then sell his town. It wasn't all of the game to have good merchandise. He had to have a good name and reputation, and he had to boost his town. We, the people of Redwood City, should sell our town to the world. We ought to let every one know that this is the best town in the state (and it is). We should make it such in every way.

The Times-Gaeztte will back any enterprise for the advancement of this community. We will give our space, as we have in the past, for any progressive movement. We believe when we make this offer that the people who have a thing to sell should co-operate and give the Times-Gazette and its contemporary better support than they are doing. The papers of Redwood City are eternally pounding out praise of the town. They are trying to help the business men of the town. Therefore there should be a greater amount of reciprocity.

SHORTRIDGE ON EUROPE

Senator Samuel M. Shortridge sizes the situation right when he says:

"Stay out of European troubles—serve mankind best by keeping this great republic safe and sound—that is the object lesson which should be brought home to the American people by the collapse of the allied premiers' conference at Paris and the danger of a new conflict.

"If we had gone into the League of Nations, America would have been plunged into a morass from which we could have never climbed. We should have been embroiled in all the politcal troubles, ambitions and intrigues of plotting nations.

"We would be in Europe not for a day, but forever unless we fought our way out.

"But there is another danger we have escaped—entering into the quarrels of Europe we would have divided and estranged our own people because we are made up of many people from many nations.

"We are not a party to the Versailles treaty—thank God. It is not for us to interpret, or construe it. We have entered into a treaty with Germany and its terms are being observed.

"United States should not, as a nation, intrude or tender her advice before or when it is asked. We have many problems of our own. We can best serve mankind by keeping this great republic safe and sound.

"We did our part in the World War. We have an outstanding indebtedness of approximately twenty-three billion dollars incurred in order to perform our part in that war.

"We became thus heavily indebted in order to loan to European asspciates over ten billion dollars. When these nations come asking that we cancel their debts due us does any one suggest how we are to be relieved from our twenty-three billion dollars outstanding obligations

"Nobly we performed our part. We asked nothing and we received nothing by way of reparations.

"I do not close my eyes to the troubles of Europe, but I am thinking of the United States and the new world."

MRS. NOLAN

The voters of the Fifth Congressional District of San Francisco are urged to elect Mrs. Mae Hunt Nolan, widow of the late John Nolan for ten years Congressman of the district, as her husband's successor at the special election on January 23. Mrs. Nolan was her husband's secretary at Washington for many years. She knew his great work at the capitol, knew his policies, and should be chosen as his successor in order to carry out the work begun by him. Mr. Nolan left his work unfinished. It should be completed by his widow. He was the author of several humanitarian bills introduced at the last session of Congress. They were prepared by Mrs. Nolan. She should be given an opportunity to urge their passage in person at Washington. The voters of the Fifth District owe it to the memory of John Nolan to elect his wife to Congress. His life was devoted to their cause for them, relinquishing all interest in his personal affairs, so that when he passed away, he left a scant estate of $1,700. Sch devotion to the people and their interests merits recognition and it is to be hoped that the people of the Fifth District will show such recognition by electing Mrs. Nolan on January 23.

PESCADERO PEBBLES

Some genuine excitement has prevaded the town in the form of a thrilling hold-up of the Pescadero Union High School bus on Tuesday morning, the 9th. John Nixon, driver of the bus was hailed by a well dressed stranger who promptly revealed a startling array of hardware, and invited John to proceed in the direction which John after considerable deliberation, took. When a short distance out along the road John's irrepressible passenger complained of a draught and fastidiously insisted on having the curtains of the bus put down. John, despite the evidence of the artillery, complied with reluctance, and again set out on his indefinite journey, which came to an end out of Half Moon Bay a little, when John happened to look around for a closer acquaintance of his fare and discovered that he had somehow vanished before John had had a chance to collect. John doesn't give the "jitney" business much thought. He's through with it. He's going in for a profession. And the cool manner with which John handled his ugly customer, and the ready judgment he betrayed in communicating at once with the local authorities indicate that he has in him the stuff that goes to make real men.

The Bank Examiner descended on the new Pescadero National Bank the latter part of last week and left again with the assuring statement that there was no criticism to make; all of which constitutes a measurement of the splendid administration of the bank's affairs by President J. C. Williamson and his fine corps of officials under whose hands the banking institution here has been able within a few brief months to assume a reliable position among the financial houses of the county. At the quarters of the bank, Mr. Purdie, Mr. Gianola, and George Davis all contribute in a striking degree the elements of gracious personalities and cordial business methods that give the place an attractive air of dignity and ease.

The Pescadero schools, grammar and high, have resumed classes after the Christmas vacation with added members to their enrollments. A number of new students are attending the grammar school from homes along the road out of town toward the Point. Student Body and Faculty at the high school are rejoicing over the return of Elsie, Ada and Edwin Blomquist, whose enforced vacation due to illness, extended over a period of some six weeks or more. All three of the students express real pleasure to be back again among their school friends and books—friends always before books.

With the rainy season at hand the Crandalls have made for their winter home in San Francisco, taking with them, much to the regret of everyone at the school and those who read "The Carnelian," their daughter, Thelma, one of the star special writers on the school paper staff. Thelma also distinguished herself in the part of Idleness in the "Every Schoolboy," recently given by the students of the high school. It is hoped that Thelma will return again when the Crandalls return in the spring.

A regular meeting of the Pescadero Community Center was held in the Center auditorium on Tuesday evening last. Among the important matters discussed was the management of the "Pescadero Pebble," the official organ of the Center and one of the real vital papers on the Coastside. A committee to look after the business end of the publication was appointed, headed by Mrs. Asa T. Weeks. An announcement was also made that a whist party to be given for the benefit of the Center funds would be organized by Mrs. Frank Williamson. The card tournament will take place early in the coming month, and is expected to be a huge success.

Mr. Eli Moore says he doesn't care what we report about him; therefore, we'll say that his injured finger is getting along so wonderfully that one day this week, on the piazza of the hotel, he was able to read a Portugese lodge paper that incidentally came to hand.

The weather over the past several weeks along the coast has been Indian-summer-like in character. There is a mellowness to the sunshine that makes it almost caressing in its golden softness; while the nights are a blaze of stars and songs of crooning southerly winds. When the moon comes up it is without that ghostly glare it showers elsewhere in the valleys, but rather with the orange glow of warming embered fires.

MODERN HEAT for Modern Homes

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY — PACIFIC COURTEOUS CONTINUOUS SERVICE

In the Bay District alone, hundreds of modern homes, of the character pictured above, enjoy the healthful and convenient heat of modern gas-fire heating systems.

Automatically-controlled gas heating systems are being installed in many homes because they are both healthful and convenient! Fresh, pure air, straight from the out-of-doors, is heated, by the gas furnaces we recommend, as it passes over and around the hot, outside surfaces of the firebox which surround the flames.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

A Gas Company serving 312,000 gas consumers—8,000 of whom were added in the last three months.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

Fifty cents of every dollar paid by automobile and motor vehicle owners for licenses is apportioned by the State to the counties from which the cars are registered to be used in maintaining roads.

In San Mateo County there are peculiar conditions due to the fact that many whose homes are here spend a portion of the year in San Francisco; many residents of the County have San Francisco offices; residents of Daly City receive their mail through the San Francisco postoffice; and residents of some of the southern sections receive their mail through postoffices in Santa Clara County.

Thus a large amount of money justly belonging to San Mateo County for road maintenance is apportioned to other counties because the automobiles are registered from outside postoffice addresses or city homes or offices.

When applying for your license for 1923, BE SURE TO REGISTER YOUR AUTOMOBILE FROM SAN MATEO COUNTY, where the money justly belongs and where it is needed for road maintenance.

San Mateo County

WRITES FROM GERMANY

Alex M. Cuthbertson, science teacher at the high school, has received a letter from Henry Hobbie, formerly clerk in the Southern Pacific office here. The letter was started on the ship on the way over to Germany, where the young man is visiting his parents, and finished in Germany after landing. His letter reads in part as follows:

Mt. Carroll,
December 2, 1922.

Dear Friend:

Better late than never, as the saying is. I intended to write from New York, but the boat sailed the same day I arrived, so I had only about three hours to spend in New York.

I have had a wonderful trip so far both on land and sea. Not a day of rough sea to mar the trip. The weather is fairly warm.

I stopped off on my trip across at Reno, Salt Lake, Denver, Chicago and Niagara Falls. There is only one city up to California standard in my estimation, and that is Salt Lake, the others are too dirty.

December 6, 1922

We arrived in Hamburg about 7 o'clock last night, just in time to see the night life of Hamburg. The moral condition of Hamburg is low, in fact, too low to believe unless you see the conditions with your own eyes. It all comes back to the low value of the mark. The sailors and tourists from the United States have the first fling at the low mark and being released from restraint of prohibition, and they certainly spend money recklessly for the first few nights, or until they come to their senses and by that time another ship is in with some more to fill out the ranks.

After registering at the U. S. Consulate at Hamburg, I took a train for my destination. The fare was 1050 marks, baggage 564 marks, total about 1½ cents, pretty cheap compared to the fares in the U. S. This was second class and an express train at that, but you must realize that it is an exhorbitant price for people that haven't a dollar to spend only marks.

I arrived late that night, and I tell you both my father and my mother were so happy to see me that it was worth the trip a hundred times. My mother was so delighted all night that she hardly slept.

The conditions are something hard to comprehend, the mark is so unstable. My brother-in-law built a house last year and went so heavily in debt that some of the people couldn't understand how he would be able to pay the interest on the debt, let alone to pay it off. This spring he sold a pig to the butcher and one half of the price enabled him to pay off the mortgage. Of course that was lucky; the contractors are afraid to bid on jobs because the mark is up and down, and some of the payments are made in oats and rye, a more stable means of payment.

I'll write you more in a few weeks after I learn some more about the conditions here.

Yours truly,
HENRY HOBBIE

SUPERVISORS SELECT COUNTY COMMITTEES

At the regular meeting of the supervisors last Monday, Supervisor C. V. Thompson was re-elected chairman of the board and the following committes were appointed:

Finance—Chairman, Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown, Second Township; Manuel L. Francis, Fourth township, and Thos. L. Hickey, First township.

County Farm and Hospital—Chairman, C. V. Thompson, Fifth township; Rosalie M. Brown, Second township; Thos. L. Hickey, First township.

Court House and Jail—Chairman C. V. Thompson, Fifth township, and Manuel Francis, Fourth township; John MacBain, Third township.

Supplies—Chairman, Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown, Second township; John MacBain, Third township; Manuel L. Francis, Fourth township.

The matter of abondoning a road through the B. P. Casey ranch at Beresford was taken up, and as there was no opposition the road was abondoned by a unanimous vote of the supervisors.

John J. McGorry was appointed as engineer for the new county hospital and the salary for that position was fixed at $225 per month.

A petition was presented through Supervisor MacBain asking for the placing of lights and approach signs at the bridge located on Alameda de Las Pulgas at the intersection of Walsh road. The petition was signed by Cyril A. Guglielmony and many others, and recited that the turn in the road was a particularly dangerous one. Spervisor MacBain stated that no lights could be placed there on account of it being outside of the lighting district, but stated that he would look into the matter of approach signs with a view to having the same installed by the Automobile Association, if possible.

The clerk was instructed by the chairman to inform Parrett and Hilp, contractors for the hospital, in answer to a communication from them in regard to the bids on the septic tank at the hospital, that all bids had been rejected as being too high.

A communication was received from some of the merchants of Redwood City, protesting against the condition of the streets in the Fair Oaks district and asking that the streets be improved. The clerk was instructed to inform the petitioners that there was no money for the work requested.

At the request from the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce that the board appoint two members of the board to confer with that body next Saturday when the subject of a proposed bridge across the Golden Gate to Marin county will be discussed, Supervisors Hickey and Brown were appointed by the board.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown, Supervisor of the Second Township, introduced a resolution designing the Redwood City Standard as the official county paper for the years 1923-1924. On second by Supervisor John MacBain, the resolution was adopted on the favorable vote of four members, Supervisor Francis being absent.

A large number of claims against the county for the month of December were carefully gone over, checked and approved, after which the board adjourned at 3:45 p. m. to meet again at the call of the chairman.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

"Every day in every way we are getting better and better." Get the point?

Edward J. Linforth, brother of Walter Linforth of Menlo Park, passed away in San Francisco the first part of the week, after a brief illness. The deceased was an attorney and for some years was connected with his brother's office. He was a native of England, aged 63 yars. He came to San Francisco at an early age. He often visited here.

Miss Marion Zeile gave a luncheon Wednesday at the Fairmont in San Francisco, as a farewell to Mrs. Frederick McNear, who with Mr. McNear, will leave soon for New York and Paris. The other luncheon guests included Mrs. Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Arthur Rose Vincent, Mrs. Marjorie Josselyn, Mrs. Stewart Lowery, Mrs. Walter Filer, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mrs. Nion Tucker, Mrs. Augutus Taylor and Mrs. Joseph Oliver Tobin.

William E. Loone, young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Loone, former residents of University Heights, will be united in marriage at Burlingame tomorrow to Miss Burnett,, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Burnett. The charming bride-to-be is related to the first governor of California, Peter Burnett. Mr. Loone is an exempalry young man, worthy of the girl who is to be his life partner.

David Roche, a former resident of Menlo Park, is quite ill at his home near Hollister. His many friends are pained to learn of the sad news and hope he will regain his health

Samuel M. Shortridge, Jr., returned from Washington during the week, having spent the holidays at the capitol. He says that it was the talk around the Senate that Judge Thomas Graham would be appointed District Judge for the Northern District of California in a short time. Mr Shortridge has been at Sacramento conferring with the legislators on certain legislation in which he is interested.

Mrs. Moore, a pretty Fresno school 'marm,' has been appointed a teacher in the Las Lomitas school to take charge of the overflow class. Three teachers now compose the faculty of the school.

Mrs. Robert Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Van Schaick passed the week end at the Joseph A. Donahue home at Menlo Park. The visitors left this week for Santa Barara enroute east.

During the coming week the Bear Gulch Water Company are going to install a valve on the twenty inch main. This will necessitate shutting down the water system in Menlo Park for a short time. The date and time of shutting off the water will be posted in the post office and additional notice will be given by the fire signal sounding three (3) blasts repeated four (4) times, an hour before shutting off the water.

John Divine, who passed away at his home in San Jose during the week, was well-konwn in Menlo Park, where he often visited. He was a pioneer resident of the Garden City, having located there in the early days. Mr. Divine had reached the ripe old age of 93 years. As an evidence of his popularity it might be stated that the funeral cortege on Thursday was a mile in length.

Local Nimrods will seek the marshes and hills tomorrow for a final hunt before the season closes on Monday at sundown. All contemplate securing the limit. Ducks are quite plentiful but the quail are pretty scarce. Will Casey will leave this evening for the lowlands, expecting to bring home a big bag of widgeon and teal. He is a good huntsman and so well is he acquainted with the haunts of the ducks that he can almost call them by their first names.

Saturday night at the Menlo Theatre, "Hell's Oasis." Suday night, "The Storm," a wonderful picture.

The age-old question of incorporating Menlo Park has bobbed up serenly once more to the utter discomforture of many. Meetings are being held to begin proceedings at a very early date. The proposition has been defeated numerous times, but looms up again at certain intervals like the proverbial bad penny. Menlo Park was one of the first towns to be incorporated in the state, having been given a charter in the sixties through the efforts of the late John T. Doyle, one of the leaders of the bar of his time. The legislature some time after disincorporated the town. What the present agitation will amount to remains to be seen.
